Dear Parishioners at SJB,

The past two and a half months have been difficult in many ways for many families. I wanted to give an update on what has happened since the outbreak made us close our doors. I plan on giving monthly updates going forward.

The parish is sadly losing Mr. Cameron Brownwell, our Music Director, who served our parish faithfully for the past two years. He will be returning to his home in the Northeast where I am sure he will do an outstanding job in his new position there. His replacement will be Ann Werner, who has been a parishioner for many years and will bring her own unique gifts to the Music Director position.

We were also fortunate enough to bring in Deacon Jeremy Castellano full-time into our parish and campus community. I believe he will do a phenomenal job here at St. John the Baptist Parish. We are lucky to have him!

We have been lucky enough to meet our new Echo apprentice (via Zoom). Her name is Elizabeth (Liz) Canto, and she comes from Alabama. She is very eager to meet our parish and start working with our SJB youth group as well as helping out our parish in other varied ways. Let’s keep her in our communal and individual prayer as she transitions to Utah. We will hopefully see her in our parish beginning in August.

In addition, our parish would like to welcome Mr. Tristan Dillon. He has been a seminarian for our diocese for the past 7 years and he will be living at our rectory and serving our parish until August.

We have continued pushing forward with some of the much needed changes to the church building. Originally, we were planning on raising funds for a new soundboard, lights, and security cameras. However, due to the present circumstances, we had to break it up and use the money that was already given to us for new security cameras. I would like to thank our Ladies Association, the Kelter family, the Sierra family, and the Peppers family for their generous contributions to help keep our parish building and our children safe.

We have also made some changes to the long hallway and the gathering space. Collin has repainted the long hallway and we have placed some matching bulletin boards along the hall. Hopefully, when we gather again with no restrictions, it will be used to communicate the many amazing ministry opportunities we have in our parish.

Most importantly, we have been able to celebrate mass and the sacraments again on limited basis (following social distancing guidelines and Our Bishops recommendations).

I would like to congratulate our RCIA class of 2020 for their full reception into the Catholic Church on May 23rd. I would also like to congratulate our Confirmandi, who were confirmed into the Catholic Church this past weekend. Let us keep them in our prayers! And I cannot wait until we can have a proper celebration to welcome our new brothers and sisters!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tilley

The Most Holy Trinity

Reading 1—Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets. Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD." Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins, and receive us as your own."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm—Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55

R. (52b) Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you, O Lord, the God of our fathers, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever;
And blessed is your holy and glorious name, praiseworthy and exalted above all for all ages.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory, praiseworthy and glorious above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blessed are you who look into the depths from your throne upon the cherubim, praiseworthy and exalted above all forever.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Reading 2—2 Corinthians 13: 11-13

Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the holy ones greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel—John 3: 16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
Penitential Act (Form A)
I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Gloria (Glory to God in the Highest)
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sin of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One; you alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. Amen

The Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Preface Acclamation
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.
